

Please leave the Indiana Telephone Privacy law alone. We have certainly enjoyed not having to listen to telemarketers every night, or have our answering machine filled with their calls. This law has been a blessing in disguise to many of us Hoosiers.